

North Wales Crusaders Wheelchair Rugby League Football Club

Club Selection Policy

The selection of player's for a match day squad is the responsibility of the coach.

During the selection process the following points must be observed

- Type of team the opposition will select
- availability of players
- correct AB/D ratio is met and maintained during any game
- priority to be given to players who regularly attend training
- player is not under disciplinary action by the RFL or club
- location of match and ability for player/carer/parent to attend
- any player who is more than 2 weeks in arrears with subs is illegible for selection

The coach will notify players, carers, parents/guardians 5 days prior to the game and pass on venue and time of game

Should at any time there is a question or complaint about selection the coach will explain in detail how the selection has been made and reasons behind inclusion or non inclusion of players
